

Eastern Europe after 30 years of transition: emancipatory politics' perspectives from the region

Workshop

organised by Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung (Prague) and Transnational Institute (Amsterdam) in collaboration with Department of Political Science, Faculty of Arts, Charles university

October 25

Place: Šporkův palác, 303 (podkroví/attic), Hybernská 3-5, Praha 1

9:30 – 10.00 Introductory remarks, introduction of participants

10.00 – 11.15 First panel

Vladimir Simović: From Socialism to Capitalism and Back - The Contested Reproduction of Socialism in Yugoslavia and its Consequences

Zoran Vuckovac and Danijela Majstorovic: After the transition: European periphery from neocolonial regime to decolonial struggle

Laert Kola: TBA

11.15-11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 12.45 Second panel

Marko Kržan and Dimitrije Birač: Crisis of US hegemony, restorationn of peripheral capitalism and new forms of nationalism in ex-Yugoslavia"

Florin Poenaru and Dana Domsodi: TBA

Madlen Nikolova: The Politics of Anticorruption in Bulgaria

12.45 – 13.35 lunch

13.35-15.20 Third panel

Andrzej Wojciech Nowak: A people live by bread alone. Transition without the "language" the disappearance of the Second World and end of Universalism

Agnes Gagyi and Tamás Gerocs: External integration as internal force: regime reconfigurations in Hungary

Ondřej Slačálek and Daniel Šitera: Czech republic - The (Im)perfect Oligarchy and the Misery of Emancipatory Alternative

Joseph Grim Feinberg: Post-Communism and Post-Dissent: On the Fate of Dissent after 1989

15.20-15.35 coffee break

15.35-17.20 Fourth panel

Oleg Zhuravlev: Ideology, movements and social change in post-soviet Russia

Volodymyr Ishchenko: TBA

Yuliya Yurchenko: TBA

Nino Khelalia: Understanding marketization processes within postsocialism: the case of Georgia

18:00-19:30 public debate: Social movements and emancipatory politics in the CEE, 30 years after

Place: Kampus Hybernská, Hybernská 4, Praha 1

(panelists: Agnes Gagyi, Florin Poenaru, Hilary Wainwright, Volodymyr Ishchenko, moderator: Františka Zezuláková Schormová)

October 26

Place: Šporkův palác, 303 (podkroví/attic), Hybernská 3-5, Praha 1

9.30 – 11.00 Possibilities of comparison, general debate

11.15 – 12.45 Next steps, publication

12.45-13.45 lunch